It gives one a lofty idea of his intellectual ability and self control, and produces a wish that its tone and temper, its calm, philosophic style, could find a larger number of imitators in congression-

> If the country could feel perfectly sure and not assumed on account of recent, events and a view, mainly, to the chances of a presidential nomination, his speech would go far toward calming the existing excitement in the public mind. And, whether it is sindere or not, this effect ought to follow to a certain extent, for, if it is assumed, that is an evidence that public sen-timent in the North relitifies that aspirants for the Presidency shall free themselves from the charge of functions and take more conservative grounds in the freat-ment of the great question of the day.

> Maryland Lehislature-Man Shot. BALTIMORE, March 11 .- The Legislature of Maryland adjourned at midnight on Saturday, concluding the most exciting session ever held. The appropriation bills were passed during the last few hours.

> The City Passenger railroad question was left without legislation. The Gov-drnor signified to the House that he would comply with the address of the legislature and remove Judge Stump. During the evening a difficulty occurred between two Baltimoreans, Thos. Gardner, Clerk of the Criminal Court, and John W. Coy.— The latter in self-defense drew a pistol and shot his antagonist, the ball inflicting flesh wounds in both his lower limbs. The diffigulty occurred in the rotunds of the capitol, and saused for a time much excite-

The Bowels and their Functions.

As perfect health is the greatest blessing that we can enjoy, without which all other blessing that we can enjoy, without which all other blessings are of little consequence, we doesn it of great importance to point out the way for you to enjoy it. The lowels must be kept in a state by which they are embled to carry of the useless matter; they are the main channel which mature has appointed to carry everything that is necessary. And it is impossible to tell what a large amount of alckness has been caused by costipation, or costiveness; in other words, by not keeping the bowels regular it is the main road to all diseases; it is the cause of annatural irritation to the mucous, or lining membraness of the bowels. Having lost their natural atrength, they cannot object to what is required of them. Heade, the bowels become influenced, and unless you find a speedy relief, a thousand other complaints are ever roady to drag you through a miserable and wretened life. Such middleines must be given as will cleanase the atomach and bywills, and restore their natural strength. To accomplish this there is the compound so valuable as these Pillis; all other medicines aink to utler insignificance when compound so valuable as these Pillis; all other medicines aink to utler insignificance when compared to them; it assems as though the Author of Nateri Made elegand them for this as well as other complaints. Prou two to five Pills a day will increase strength appetite, and cleanes the stomach and intestines from whatever is injurious.
